ACTION TAKEN REPORT OF FEEDBACK ON COURSE CURRICULUM – 2021-22

This is to certify that, during the year, the college has collected feedback on course curriculum from students and Alumni Association. With the help of IQAC, the collected feedback is analysed and short listed the suggestions/recommendations and accordingly implemented them on priority basis for the effective delivery of course curriculum. Following are the detailed list of implementation during the year –

(1) Procured more than 150 text books during the year.

(2) Conducted Remedial Classes for slow learners.

(3) Orientation is given to the fresher students on NEP pattern of course curriculum.

(4) The Department of English has conducted special coaching for students who are weak in English communication skills.

(5) Conducted special lectures on Career Guidance and Placement. However, during the year 21 students continued for higher education.

(6) Established Commerce laboratory and accordingly, the Department of Commerce has conducted activities to enrich the course curriculum and actively involved all commerce students to experiment the assignments.

(7) Some of the department has conducted study tours, field work, surveys based on course curriculum.

(8) Conducted coaching classes on competitive examinations.
